From the Secretary to the—. From the great quantity of salt on hand at the end of the Fusly, the export this year to Bengal cannot be reduced below 4 lacs of maunds. That limitation even will cause much loss to the Government, and to those concerned with the manufacture and shipping. The Board have ordered no more salt to be made this year for Bengal; but the restriction will be severely felt by the manufacturers, particularly in Nellore and Chingleput. It would be less felt by those of Madras, but it is often an object to ships to take the salt on board here, rather than at the ports of Chingleput and Nellore. If the export must unavoidably be restricted to 4 lacs, they propose that a higher export price be fixed for Madras than for those districts, and they will make the most convenient distribution they can of the limited quantity among the several ports. They represent the importance of having a demand as little liable to fluctuation as possible. Cons., 4th Feb., No. 6, p. 185.

To the—. Government cannot propose to the Supreme Government that a larger export of salt should be allowed this year than has already been fixed. Annaswamy having tendered satisfactory articles of agreement, the Board recommend that the Advocate-General be requested to draw up a formal instrument accordingly, and a Regulation suggested by him for the management of the concerns of the Pagoda in doing which, they think he should consider the propriety of associating some of the other officers of the Pagoda with the Dhurmakurta in the custody of the funds. The Board recommend that the Bombay Government be informed of the difficulties experienced by Mr. Vaughan, and that the suggestion of an establishment of elephants be submitted for adoption. Cons., 12th Apr. No. 14, p. 709.

Cons., 15th Apr. No. 10, p. 734.

To the—. Government does not concur in the Board's opinion that the officers of Sea Customs are entitled to receive commission on the amount of duty that would, under ordinary circumstances, have been levied on the grain imported at Madras during last year.
